Who can offer a raffle?

Only a bona fide charitable or nonprofit organization with a purpose that meets certain criteria is allowed to conduct raffles in Washington. The organization must be organized and operating for at least 12 months before offering a raffle.

Can a private citizen or commercial business offer a raffle?

No, not even if they give the money raised to charity.

We supply you the tickets, after sign-in.

Your group (6 people – adults and/or kids) will sign-in at Will Call.
for each person over 6, they will need to pay to get in.

We ask that you arrive by 4:30pm to set up and start selling by 5:00pm when the gates open. You will stop selling around 8:00—8:15pm.. just depends on the night.

You will take all the money collected to Jon Hager – all bills must flattened.

Your group will receive half the funds sold. Funds will be released to the name on the application.

Each group will be allowed one opportunity each year.

Please look over the rules and regulations
